As Light as a Feather

Dakshayani Chippada | Puja Mondal | Megha Madan | Krutika Kangriwala

Four Young artists Dakshayani Chippada, Puja Mondal, Megha Madan, and Krutika Kangriwala celebrate the sensibilities of life whilst recording the mundane daily objects through delicately drawn lines. These works lie in between the world of abstraction and form to create the poetry of the serene and eternal nature of the lines. The lines; straight or curved, let them fall into the geometry, or the lines that have contours create the forms. These lines levitate on the skin of the delicate white papers.

The universality of these artworks is advocated through a reduction, to the essentials of form and color; by simplified visual compositions to vertical and horizontal, using black, white and colored lines and contours to achieve the greatest possible degree of harmony and they go beyond the non-objectivity of forms which tends to flow/fly in the thin air like a feather.
